CHEMNITZ, (HUNGARY) April 3.

SOME Huntſmen from Frauenmark, in the Province of Horenfer, who were out a Bear-hunting, being in purſuit of a very large One, he buried himſelf very deep. On digging the Ground in order to unkennel him, there were found in the Snow, Marks of human Footſteps: Upon following theſe they found, to their great Aſtoniſhment, a wild Woman, about 16 or 18 Years old, quite naked, clumſy, ſtrong, and black. She was taken up by main ſtrength, and, to her, with great Reluctance, ſhe looking on every one with much Indignation and Reſentment. She is put into an Hoſpital, is cloathed, and taken care of. She will eat nothing but raw Fleſh, and wild Roots. No Perſon has heard her ſpeak, and it is thought ſhe is dumb.

LONDON, May 18.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, April 20.

"A French Gentleman, in the Service of Spain, in Quality of Captain to a Regiment of Foot, which was ſtationed at Paraguay, happening to be in a Houſe of the Jeſuits on that Continent, Two Manuſcripts fell into his Hands, conſiſting, it is ſaid, of Inſtructions from the General of the Society to the Miſſionaries in India. The Officer perceiving that theſe Inſtructions contained attrocious Things, as well againſt the King of Spain, as againſt the Pope, he took and clapped them up carefully in his Pocket-Book. The Superior of the Jeſuits finding the Manuſcript miſſing, ſuſpected the Officer of having taken them, and employed Prayers, Promiſes, and Threats to prevail on him to reſtore them; but the Officer having denied ſeeing them, the Jeſuits had recourſe to the Authority of Mr. Savallos, Commandant-General of Paraguay, who being devoted to the Jeſuits, cauſed the French Officer to be condemned by a Council of War, under Pretence of Diſobedience, to looſe his Employ, and to remain Eight Years in Confinement at Ceuta. After this Sentence, the Officer having found Means to inform his Family in France of his Condition, they ſolicited the Spaniſh Miniſtry in his Favour, and obtained an Order for his being brought to Madrid. At his Arrival he delivered up the Two Manuſcripts in Queſtion to the Count d'Aranda, with whom he had ſeveral Conferences. As to Mr. de Savallos, he is recalled, and diſgraced."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, April 27.

"The Pragmatic Sanction of the King of Spain againſt the Jeſuits in his States, is publicly ſold by the Hawkers here and in Spain.

"In 1598, theſe Fathers were baniſhed from France, for being concerned in the Aſſaſſination of King Henry IV. They were driven from England by Queen Elizabeth in 1602; from the Republic of Venice in 1605; from Poland in 1607; from Bohemia, Sileſia, Moravia, and Hungary, in 1619, where, however, they are again re-eſtabliſhed. They were expelled from Portugal and France, and now juſt baniſhed for ever from the Monarchy of Spain."

Extract of a Letter from the Eccleſiaſtic State, April 18.

"The Pope has addreſſed a Brief to the King of Spain, to engage him to relent in favour of the Jeſuits; and, at all Events, declaring that he will not receive them.

Extract of a Letter from Florence, April 18.

"We are juſt now informed by a Letter from Rome, that after a Deliberation on the Subject of what has happened to the Jeſuits in Spain, it was reſolved not to receive in the Pope's Territories any other of thoſe Religious than ſuch as are Italians by Birth; and that Orders to that Purpoſe had been diſpatched to the Governors of all the Ports in the Eccleſiaſtic State. We are not a little ſurprized at this News, ſince thoſe Fathers are each of them to enjoy a Life-Annuity, and of Courſe need not become burthenſome to the State where they reſide. There are Thouſands of Conjectures made here on the Occaſion of this Cataſtrophe of the Jeſuits. We always thought that Spain was the laſt Country where they were likely to ſuffer ſuch a Diſgrace. The Society had its Birth there, and Don Ignatius de Loyola, its Founder, was a natural born Subject of that Kingdom."

The turning Reaſon for the Expulſion of the Jeſuits out of Spain has been, a late Diſcovery of a Fourth Vow enjoined by that Order, though not to all its Members, nor known even by them, of being true to their General above King or Pope! ----Thus Roman Catholics at large vow Attachment to the Pope above Civil Magiſtrates; and Jeſuits to their General above the Pope! Proteſtants, beware of both, like your Anceſtors, neither grant them Emoluments nor Truſts.

Advice is received in Town, that the whole 17 Convents of St. Maur, in France, who had adopted ſome Principles of the Jeſuits, and were diſcovered therein, have had abſolute Orders for Removal, within 48 Hours, upon Pain of Impriſonment.

On Saturday Night ſome Diſpatches were ſent away for Sir Henry Moore, Bart. Governor of New-York, ſaid to be relative to the late Reſolutions of an Auguſt Aſſembly.

We learn from Edinburgh, that the fine Carpet, which was ſome Time ago ordered to be manufactured at Pittenweem, in Fifeſhire, for her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, is now finiſhed, and laſt Week was ſhewn to a vaſt Number of People at the Cuſtom-Houſe. It is eſteemed by the beſt Judges to rival, if not excel, the Manufacture of Turkey and Perſia; the Figures are finely fancied; the Colour exquiſite; and the whole ſo highly finiſhed, as to excite univerſal Admiration. It is about Twenty-five Feet long, by Seventeen in Breadth.---The drawing of the Pattern alone, by which it was worked, it is ſaid, coſt Fifty Pounds, and the Carpet itſelf, we are told, is valued at Three Hundred Pounds Sterling. On Monday laſt it was ſent off by the Waggon for London.

On Friday laſt the Prince Frederick, Captain Hanan, one of the Tranſports who ſailed with Commodore Byron to Patagonia in South-America, arrived in the Downs, and remains for Orders; and, we hear, he has got on board Three Men, Two Women, a Boy and a Girl of that Country.

The General-Court of the Eaſt-India Company, which met on Monday at Merchant-Taylors-hall, did not break up till Five Yeſterday Morning. The Papers and Letters received from Abroad were read, and the general State of the Company's Affairs was laid before them; after which a Motion was made for offering the Government 400,000 l. per Annum for Three Years, or half their Profits in Trade for that Time, which ever they ſhould prefer; which was agreed to; then a Motion was made for petitioning to be heard by Council againſt the Bill depending for regulating the Dividends, and a great Debate aroſe thereupon; at length a Ballot for the Queſtion was propoſed. Fifty Gentlemen proteſted againſt that Motion; but, notwithſtanding, the Ballot began at Ten on Monday Night, and was declared at Four Yeſterday Morning, in Favour of the Petition.

A Stop, it is ſaid, will ſoon be put to the enormous Exportation of Silver to the Eaſt-Indies.

CHARLES-TOWN, (S. CAROLINA) July 10.

This Day arrived here from Weſt Florida, his Majeſty's Ship Cygnet, commanded by Philip Durell, Eſq; in which came Paſſengers Brigadier General Taylor and his Lady, whom Capt. Durell landed at St. Auguſtine. The Cygnet in her Way from Penſacola, went to the Havannah, and, when a-breaſt of the Moro, was hailed and ordered to bring to, Captain Durell anſwered he would do ſo, as ſoon as the Ship was in Safety, on which ſeveral Guns were fired at him from the Moro, and, juſt as the Anchor was gone, a Twenty-four Pound Ball ſtruck the Cygnet about Six Inches above the Water, went through her Larboard Side and ſtuck in the Starboard. Capt. Durell was not permitted to go on Shore, but wrote to the Governor, complaining of the Inſult offered to the Britiſh Flag, and had for Anſwer, that they had the King's Orders not to ſuffer any Ships to enter that Port. We are told ſeveral other Letters paſt. A few Days after, the Adventure Frigate, Capt. Fitzherbert, came off the Havannah, with Diſpatches from Admiral Parry to the Spaniſh Governor, and met with much the ſame Treatment. The Spaniards uſed the moſt ſcurrilous abuſive Language to both Ships, calling the People, Engliſh Dogs, &c. Theſe are all the Particulars of this extraordinary Affair we have as yet been able to procure. There is no doubt that proper Notice will be taken of ſuch daring Inſults, and the Dons be made to know themſelves, and not to forget who were their Conquerors.

Letters from Penſacola make mention of a Reinforcement of Spaniſh Troops being arrived at New-Orleans; Part of which, with a Convoy of Proviſions, and ſome Preſents for the Indians, was gone up the Miſſiſippi, to take Poſſeſſion of the Territories on the Weſtern Side of the River, ceded to Spain.

Extract of a Letter from New-Providence, dated June 24, 1767.

"By a Veſſel in Three Days from Porto Prince, in Cuba, we are aſſured, that all the Jeſuits in that Iſland had been ſeized a few Days before ſhe ſailed, together with their Papers and Effects, to a very conſiderable Amount, and carried to the Havannah, in order to be ſent from thence to Old Spain: They had not the leaſt Notice or Apprehenſion of this extraordinary Revolution till they ſaw themſelves ſurrounded in their Convents, &c. by a Number of Soldiers, and their Perſons and Properties conveyed, under Guard, to the principal Port in the Iſland. This is all the News we have of any Importance."

July 14. From North-Carolina we are informed, that Governor Tyron, with the Commiſſioners appointed for that Purpoſe, joined by the Chiefs of the Cherokee Nation, on the 4th of June, began to run out the Boundary-Line between North-Carolina, and the Cherokee Hunting-Grounds, at the Corner Tree on Reedy River, where the Line behind the Province terminates. The Surveyors went a North Courſe 53 Miles, marking as they went into the Mountains; and on the 13th of June, they marked ſeveral Trees on the Top of Mount-Tyron, on the head Waters of White Oak and Pacolet Creeks, running into Green and Broad Rivers; but ſeveral Obſtacles having impeded a further Survey, it was agreed by the whole, that the Boundary ſhould be a direct Line from the ſaid marked Trees, to Chiſwell's Mines in Virginia; which being ſettled and agreed upon, proper Inſtruments were drawn up, and ſigned by the Parties preſent, to be tranſmitted to his Majeſty.---The Indians were ſo highly pleaſed with his Honour's Condeſcenſion to their ſeveral Requiſitions, that they complimented him with the War Name of The Great Wolf of North-Carolina.

Extract of a Letter from Penſacola, June 13.

"Our Aſſembly is diſſolved by the Lieutenant-Governor, and new Writs of Election are about to be iſſued: Diſputes run high, ſo that the whole Province ſeems to be in Confuſion.

"Other Letters from the ſame Place mention, that Five Traders had been lately found murdered on the Cherokee River, by (as the Cherokees ſay) ſome of the Northern Tribes who have ſtrolled thus far South. The Creeks, by burning a Choctaw Headman alive, whom they lately made Priſoner, has kindled up afreſh the Fury of that Nation, which had almoſt ſubſided."

NEW-YORK, July 23.

Captain William Moore, of the Brig Africa, who arrived here on Sunday laſt from New-Orleans, brought with him one George Cahoon, a Lad of about 15 or 16 Years old, who ſays that he was (with the whole Family) taken about 10 Years ago, from Cumberland County, in Virginia, by the French Iroquois Indians, that his Father's Name was alſo George Cahoon, and that Three of his Brothers, and Three of his Siſters, were ſtill with the Indians, when he was purchaſed by a French Officer, and carried to the Miſſiſippi; the ſaid Lad is now by Choice going to Trois Riviere in Canada, attending on Two Young Gentlemen, Sons of the Surveyor-General of New-Orleans.

Tueſday laſt arrived here Captain Cotton, from Iſaquibo, but laſt in Fifteen Days from St. Euſtatia. The Day he ſailed from thence, the Brig Helena, Captain Harriot, arrived at Statia, from this Port, in her Way to Coracoa, and had brought in with him, Dr. Vanzolingen, late Owner, and Captain Livingſton, Maſter of a Sloop, from this Port, bound for the Weſt-Indies, together with all his Men, whom Captain Harriot took off of the Wreck at Sea, Six Days after he ſailed from this Port:--- By ſeveral Letters from them, we have the following melancholly Account of their Diſaſter: That on the 16th of June, Four Days after they left the Land, the Sloop ſprung a Leak, and, notwithſtanding all their Endeavours, ſhe ſoon filled: They had but a few Feet of the Quarter-Deck above Water; but the Veſſel happily did not ſink un... The next Day ſeveral Planks of the Main-Deck blew up, and a pretty high Sea running, they were expoſed to the utmoſt Diſtreſs; they could not make any Sail at all, but were left to the Mercy of the Waves: After continuing in this deplorable Condition above Four Days, Capt. Harriot happily appeared, and took them up: They ſaved nothing but the wet Cloaths on their Backs, and as the Veſſel began to fall to Pieces juſt as they were diſcovered, it is thought; had not the kind Providence of God ſo ſeaſonably interpoſed, that in a few Hours more they would all have periſhed.

Extract of a Letter from New-Orleans, June 22, 1767.

"Monſieur De Ulloa continues at the Bellies; the Spaniards are building a Fort oppoſite the old one, on the Right Hand as you enter the River, another within Gun Shot of Fort Bute, another below the Natches, on the Weſt Side of the River, and a Fourth near Fort Chartres, Illinois. Brigadier Haldiman is daily expected here on his Way to the Natches: We hear the Lieutenant-Governor has occaſioned a general Diſſatisfaction among the Inhabitants of Penſacola."

The Report we had on Wedneſday laſt of the Arrival of the Act of Parliament for the Legiſlative Authority of this Province to ceaſe, until the Billeting Act is complied with, we can assure the Public, is without Foundation, as no such Act was brought here in the Gaspee, Captain Allan.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.

Last Sunday Evening the Royal Highland Regiment embarked for Ireland; which Regiment, since its Arrival in America, is distinguishable for having undergone most amazing Fatigues; made long and frequent Marches through an inhospitable Country, bearing the most excessive Heat, and severest Cold, with Alacrity and Chearfulness; frequently encamping in the deep Snows, such as those who inhabit the interior Parts of this Province but rarely see, and which those only who inhabit the most Northern Parts of Europe, can have an Idea of; continually exposed in Camp, and on their Marches, to the Alarms of the savage Enemy, who as frequently flew from them successless in their Attempts; were present at almost every Engagement during the last War in the West-Indies and America; served at Guadaloupe, Martinico, the Havannah, at Ticonderago, at the Reduction of Fort Du Quesne, at the Reduction of Canada. They have the sincere Thanks of the Freemen of this Province, for that still further distinguishing Mark of their Resolution and Bravery, by which, under the Conduct of Col. BOUQUET, assisted with a small Number of the Royal Americans, this, and the neighbouring Provinces, are now at Ease, and have the Blessings of Peace secured to them, from any further Interruption from the savage Enemy; and that though they were much inferior in Number, and had an additional Disadvantage, a large Convoy to protect, they defeated an Enemy, whom, if successful, would have desolated the whole Frontier; and, instead of the Distress, which would have been consequently felt in the interior Parts of the Province, have restored a beneficial and advantageous Commerce. Besides our Thanks for having thus secured our Peace, they receive our Thanks for that Decorum in Behaviour, which they kept up during their Stay in the Barracks of this City, giving an Example, that the most amiable Behaviour in civil Life, is not inconsistent with the Character of the good Soldier; and for their Loyalty, Fidelity and orderly Behaviour, the Inhabitants of this City wish them, the Officers and Men, Health, Happiness, a safe and agreeable Voyage.

RAN away from the Subscriber, in August last, a Negro Lad, named DICK, about 17 Years of Age, 4 Feet 7 or 8 Inches high, well-set, has remarkable red Gums, which he shows much when he speaks or laughs, has a sly cunning Look, which corresponds very well with his Disposition, is very talkative, speaks plain, and, if examined, can tell a very plausible current Tale. He is notorious for running away, having constantly practised it since he was Six Years of Age, in return for which he has received Two remarkable Certificates; the first, Stripes, by Whipping; the other, having the Letter D branded on his A-se, which, however, may be now wore out, as he only received a slight Impression. Notwithstanding the Space of Time since his last Elopement, he has never been heard of but once, which was about Six Weeks after, I am therefore inclined to think he is clandestinely detained in some remote Part of this, or the neighbouring Provinces.

Whoever takes up, or secures said Negro, so as I may get him again, shall have, if taken in this, or Charles County, Three Pounds; if in any other County in this Province, Five Pounds; if in the Province of Pennsylvania or Virginia, Ten Pounds; and, if in Carolina, Twenty Pounds, and reasonable travelling Charges, if brought home, paid by

THE Subscriber takes this Method to acquaint the Public, that he now carries on the STAY-MAKING BUSINESS in all its Branches, at his House, in LONDON-TOWN, within 4 Miles of ANNAPOLIS, having for that Purpose supplied himself with the best of Materials, and engaged good Workmen to carry on the same, particularly Richard Littlemore, who some Years ago carried on that Business for Mr. William Beans, in Prince-George's County; and, since that Time, was a Principal Hand in Mr. Wallace's Shop for Four or Five Years; and likewise since wrought for Mr. Joseph Foard, till his Death. Those LADIES who shall please to favour me with their Custom in that Way, may depend on having their Orders punctually executed, with Fidelity and Dispatch. I still carry on the TAILOR's BUSINESS, as usual, being provided with good Workmen for that Branch. RAN away from the Subſcriber, living in Joppa, Baltimore County, Maryland, on the 10th of May, the Three following Servant Men, viz.

John Cheppel, aged about 43 Years, but appears to be much older, as he has a very grey Head, he is an Engliſhman born, a tall ſlim made Man, except his having broad Shoulders, has a Sore on one of his Legs which cauſes him to walk a little lame; his Dreſs when he went away, was an Oſnabrig Frock, one ditto Waiſtcoat, one old blue Kerſey ditto, one Pair of brown Kerſey Breeches, Oſnabrig Trowſers, one Check Shirt, one Oſnabrig ditto, Yarn Stockings, and Country made Shoes, had a Felt Hat bound round the Edge with black Worſted, and wears a brown Bob Wig. The ſaid Cheppel has been much uſed to the Seas, underſtands Navigation perfectly well, and has been a Captain of a Man of War, has a Regiſter from the Admiralty at home, which makes him appear to have acted in that Capacity; he is under Indentures for Five Years.

Jhon Barret, an Engliſh Convict Lad, about 20 Years of Age, well grown, of a fair Complexion, has a down Look, and ſtammers when he talks, wears his own Hair, which is ſtraight, and on the backiſh Order, his Cloathing, when he went away, was but mean, being coarſe Country Cloth, had ſeveral Oſnabrig Shirts, and Trowſers, an old Hat, and Country made Shoes.

SCHEME

MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY.

THE Lower Houſe of Aſſembly of Maryland have frequently and ineffectually petitioned, ſince Seven Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That his Lordſhip hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hogſhead on Tobacco exported.

A Conſtitutional Tax on the People to ſupport an Appeal of the Appointment of the Lower Houſe, has been greatly deſired, frequently attempted, and as often refuſed by the Upper Houſe.

The Lower Houſe of Aſſembly contend, That the Charges of the Council his reaſonable Reward, as well as every other Expence neceſſarily attending the Execution of the Powers of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the Fines, Forfeitures, Amerciaments, and other Monies received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, "That Senſe "ment being directly oppoſite to the Opinion the Upper "Houſe had, on mature Conſideration, formed upon the "Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," prescribed occaſioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Diſtreſs of Trade for Want of a Circulating Medium, and the extreme Neceſſity of Public Credit, compelled the Lower Houſe to agree to an Appeal to his Majeſty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference, without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpoſe, as the only Means to ſettle Diſputes, reſtore Public Credit, and lay a ſure Foundation for the future Eaſe and Good of the Province.

A Subſcription therefore, by RESOLVE of the Lower Houſe, has been Open'd, and Subſcriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and ſupporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as obtaining Redreſs of their other Grievances; and, by RESOLVE of the Lower Houſe, as an additional Means of raiſing Money for the ſame Purpoſes, the following SCHEME of a LOTTERY, by which to raiſe One Thouſand Pounds Common Money, is ſubmitted to the Public.
